Y. M. C. A. Notes

Additional plans have been made by social workers committee for the New Year's program which is to be open to the general public. There will be a combination program. The day program will be in the morning consisting of gymnastics and ending up in the swimming pool. The afternoon will be for the adults with a program and entertainment by the physical department.
 A special cafeteria dinner is being planned for New Year's evening.

Numbers of inquiries have been received in regard to the salesmanship class to be organized the first of the year if enough interest can be aroused. Any ex-soldier who wishes to take this course should get in touch with the Y. M. C. A. at once and any others who are interested should let the committee know immediately, as a class will not be started with less than 20 applicants, owing to the expense of the operation of such a course.

Soothing healing Wizard Oil will always bring quick relief. Numerous size bottles etc.
 If you are troubled with constipation or sick headache try Hamlin's Wizard Oil. Just pleasant little pills and at druggists for 5c. Outrigger.

Is There a Santa Claus?

There are some things that cannot be told too often. One of these is Charles A. Dana's famous Christmas letter to Virginia O'Hanlon, a girl reader of the New York Sun, then edited by Mr. Dana. This newspaper delights in reprinting this, the most noted of all Christmas letters. It was written in December, 1897.

THE LETTER

"Dear Editor—I am 8 years old.
 "Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus.
 "Papa says 'If you see it in The Sun it's so.'
 "Please tell me the truth, is there a Santa Claus?
 "VIRGINIA O'HANLON,
 "115 West Ninety-fifth Street."

THE REPLY

Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe except they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's, are little. In this great universe of ours man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole of truth and knowledge.

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! how dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies. You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus, coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but that's no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders there are unseen and unseeable in the world.

You tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man, nor even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived, could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside that curtain and view and picture the supernal beauty and glory beyond. Is it all real? Ah, Virginia, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

No Santa Claus! Thank God! he lives, and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay, ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

You Want Attractive Furniture For Christmas

For the holidays to come you will want your home to look attractive and be as comfortable as possible. This can be accomplished by the right kind of furniture—the kind that looks good, and is so good that its attractiveness is retained for years. This being the case why not make a gift "to the family" of furniture? Come in and see our Christmas display—selections made now will be held for later delivery. Any of the suites or pieces described below would make excellent gifts.

And remember that you always receive full value at Clemann & Salzmann's—not a big value on one or two, and a small value on others—but a full value on every purchase.

A Queen Anne Bedroom Suite of Mahogany

Here is a Queen Anne bedroom suite of unusual beauty—finished in either American walnut or mahogany. Notice especially the graceful lines of the Queen Anne period and the attractive design. Yet this is only one of several period suites that will make your home more beautiful. At Clemann & Salzmann's all bedroom suites are completely set up; you see them as they will appear in your bedroom.

Comfortable Overstuffed Suites Reduced $75 to $150

An overstuffed living room suite lends an atmosphere of comfort and genial hospitality in any home. Whether buying a new one or replacing an old one you will make no mistake by seeing our display. Each suite is built better than seems necessary—but they will give many years of good service. From the standpoint of durability, beauty and comfort an overstuffed suite from this store will prove a splendid investment.

Each suite has been reduced at least $75, some as much as $150.

Floor and Table Lamps

The living room and library is not quite complete without a floor and table lamp—in fact a good many homes find more than one is not too many. In your search for an out-of-the-ordinary design we are sure you will find one or more at this store to meet your tastes.

Odd Dining Tables, Buffets Etc.

If looking for an odd dining table, buffet, dressing table, chiffonier, brass bed or any separate piece we want you to come and see just what we have in stock. Our showing is so large and varied you will undoubtedly be able to select your needs with little delay.
